Have you been thinking about downsizing, changing your life style, moving to a facility that offers personal assistance at a time in your life when you need it and deserve it? Looking for a new social life, tired of living at home, unsafe or lonely?

Once you've made the decision to shop around for an assisted living facility, does a move at this time in your life feel overwhelming? Do you need help selecting the "right" place where you'll feel comfortable and your needs will be met?

Or have you selected the right place and now you need help choosing from your home what to take with you and what to leave behind? What to give away and what can you sell? Do you need someone to come in and pack your belongings up with you?

Let Generation's new Elder Move Coordinator take the pressure off what should be a very exciting time in your life.

Let us make it easier for you to finally move into the apartment you've been thinking about. Let us provide you and your family with peace of mind to sign a Contract for a new home while you can still enjoy yourself and make new friends.

Providing "total move management", our Elder Move Coordinator will manage the sale and removal of all estate contents by working with you to determine specific needs towards the goal of a successful move.

Elder Move Coordinator services include, but are not limited to:

- Preparing and staging a residence for sale
- Arranging appraisals and sales of possessions through auctions, estate sales, consignment, private sales
- Donations to charities
- Storage
- Trash removal and clean out
- Helping you select a new physician
- Arranging for your medications to be at your new home on time
